This worksheet contains eight rows of handwriting practice lines, each featuring a different geometric pattern for tracing. The patterns are as follows:

- Row 1: A sequence of diamond shapes. The first diamond is solid purple, and the following five are dashed with colored dots at the vertices (green, red, cyan, pink, green).
- Row 2: A sequence of circles and diamonds. The first circle is solid purple, followed by a dashed diamond, then a dashed circle, and so on, with colored dots at the vertices.
- Row 3: A sequence of circles and diamonds. The first circle is solid purple, followed by a dashed diamond, then a dashed circle, and so on, with colored dots at the vertices.
- Row 4: A sequence of circles and diamonds. The first circle is solid purple, followed by a dashed diamond, then a dashed circle, and so on, with colored dots at the vertices.
- Row 5: A sequence of arches. The first arch is solid purple, and the following four are dashed with colored dots at the base and peak (green, red, cyan, pink).
- Row 6: A sequence of arches. The first arch is solid purple, and the following four are dashed with colored dots at the base and peak (green, red, cyan, pink).
- Row 7: A sequence of zig-zag lines. The first zig-zag is solid purple, and the following five are dashed with colored dots at the peaks and valleys (green, red, cyan, pink, green).
- Row 8: A sequence of arches. The first arch is solid purple, and the following four are dashed with colored dots at the base and peak (green, red, cyan, pink).
